

Alpha 2004 (Fall) – Music List

The following set lists show the actual songs used at our fall 2004 Alpha course. I use a template such as this so that I remember what songs I did from week to week. I provide this because I was asked at an Alpha training day for an example of how I put together the songs on an Alpha course.

Up until week 6, I kept track of things quite well. After the weekend away, I didn't update the list, since I had many more songs to choose from because of the weekend.

Please note that this is just one instance of a list of songs that I used. It will never be repeated exactly the same way, since it is the Holy Spirit who guides us in the selection of songs

Alpha 2004 (Fall) – Music List

Song	Composer/Artist	Comments
Week 1
All the Diamonds	Bruce Cockburn	Felt led to do a song for people to listen to
Kings and Nations	Robin Mark	Objective truth, but one guest was hit powerfully by the presence of God when we sang. This person did not complete the Alpha course (yet) but God has begun a healing in her and she now knows God exists.
Week 2
I can only imagine	Mercy Me	I bit intimate, but well known on the secular airwaves, and therefore familiar to people.
The River	Brian Doerksen	Very easy to sing and quite powerful. It's got a bit of a gospel feel, and does not feel vary "heavy". People really liked this one.
Week 3
Fill This Place	Robin Dhillon	A declaration type of song asking God to come and bring His power
The River	Brian Doerksen
The Wonder of Your Cross	Robin Mark	Very powerful new song from Robin Mark, It has the same power-feel as "In Christ Alone", which we have used before. Clearly expresses the truths of the cross.
Week 4
The Wonder of Your Cross	Robin Mark
Here is Love		A song from the 1904 (I think) revival. A bit like "The River", but expresses the truths of God's love
Beautiful One	Tim Hughes	An exuberant, joyful song. This is the first song introduced this course which is blatantly intimate in what it says, but the style of the songs expresses unbounded joy.
Week 5
We Welcome You	Danny Daniels	This song could have been introduced at any time. It's very easy to sing. Right now, I am trying to load in some songs I will do on the weekend away.
Here is Love
Shout to the Lord	Darlene Zchech	Popular contemporary worship

Alpha 2004 (Fall) – Music List

		song. By this point, I begin selecting from a wider repertoire, which includes songs with personal expressions of worship
Week 6
Beautiful One	Tim Hughes
Everything Cries Holy	Robin Mark	Good for extended, spontaneous worship
All for Jesus	Robin Mark	One of the best songs (in my opinion) around today. A song of surrender, adoration, and commitment.
Week 7
Week 8
Week 9
Week 10
Other Songs used at various Weekends Away
Hallelujah (Your love is amazing)	God of Wonders	Take us to the river
Here I am to worship	Great in power	The Lord Almighty reigns
All Heaven Declares	Holy, holy, holy	We want to see Jesus lifted high
Be thou my vision	I could sing of your love forever	What the Lord has done in me
Breathe	I give you my heart	Who is there like you
Come and fill me up	In Christ Alone	You are my King
Days of Elijah	In the morning when I rise	You led me to the cross
Draw me close	Once again	Your love O Lord
Enough	Pour over me
Eyes Can't See	Send the Fire
Faithful One	Shout to the North
